

Senior University Georgetown (SrU)
PROPOSAL TO TEACH A COURSE OR PRESENT A LECTURE

Senior University (www.senioruniversitygeorgetown.org) is a membership organization offering persons over 50 years of age a varied program of classes, lectures, travel activities, and other learning opportunities designed to provide intellectual stimulation, cultural experiences, and personal enjoyment. We offer fall and spring (aka winter) terms of six weeks each, with one 60- to 90-minute class session per week, as well as a summer term of one week comprising 10 lectures of 60 minutes each. We also offer a program of free lectures open to the public during the fall and winter terms. We welcome academically oriented proposals to teach courses or to present lectures.

This is a proposal to teach or offer a (check all that apply):

Course

Summer lecture

Public lecture

1. Name: 2. Address:
3. Phone and e-mail: 4. Educational background:
5. Teaching experience (indicate positions and number of years in each position):
6. Other relevant experience (in addition please attach a curriculum vitae or résumé):
7. Title and description of the proposed course or lecture (use the reverse side or provide attachments if needed):
8. Other information that may help SrU to understand the nature of the proposed offering (e.g., outline of content, technology to be used, materials and sources emphasized, relevance to current events):
9. For a class, indicate the desired minimum or maximum enrollments, if any:

Please submit this form either on paper to Senior University, PO Box 488, Georgetown, TX 78627, or as a PDF document to admin@senior-u.org. Thank you for your proposal. We will contact you as soon as possible.