

Senior University Travels
Austin Behind-the-Scenes #32
Thursday, October 13, 2011
8:15 a.m. – 4:30 p.m.

→ There's a NEW Museum in town! It's a jewel, and no one knows about it!

Chiseled into the DK Royal Stadium is an exciting array of exhibits, wonderful art, plus history from Tom Landry to Jack LaLanne, Ben Crenshaw to Dr. Kenneth Cooper (who invented the word aerobics). The amazing facility is the successful project of Kinesiology and Health Education faculty members Terry and Jan Todd, and it serves as the Physical Culture and Sports Center for research at the University of Texas.

www.starkcenter.org

→ "The Dolph Briscoe Center for American History"

On the UT Campus- a leading history research center

Ten Top Collections include the "Alamo Diaries", Walter Cronkite Papers, Stephen F. Austin Papers, Bexar Archives and the Dolph Briscoe Papers www.cah.utexas.edu.

On exhibit: fascinating photos: Changing the Face of Power: Women in the U.S. Senate

→ LBJ Library: check out the 34.5 million exterior renovation

→ Lunch: Arpeggio Mediterranean Grill

Quaint neighborhood restaurant

→ We are invited into the home of Laurence and Rosanne Becker

to view their unusual art gallery of works by autistic savant, Richard Wawro of Edinburg, Scotland. Learn about these works and the amazing artist behind them, along with the stories of other severely handicapped, yet highly gifted and talented people in the Becker's lives. You will find our hosts to be passionate and enlightening!

Please see this website: www.savantsyndrome.com
Go to Richard Wawro, bottom right, & click on video

$57 per person

Includes motor coach, refreshments, lunch, all taxes and gratuities; Hosts: Babs & George Cape

RESERVE NOW!

admin@senior-u.org

819-7680

Upon confirmation mail your check to Box 488, 78627

www.senioruniversitygeorgetown.org