Austin Behind-the-Scenes #25!

Wednesday, October 1, 2008

Depart at 8:15 a.m.

Return about 5:30 p.m.

Historic Penn Field: Austin Playhouse “Backstage” – Design Center of Austin - Clear Channel – plus the Mexican American Cultural Center

We Visit Penn Field, Once the Site of a WWI-era Airfield

Nights out for Dinner and Theater-Austin Style have been special times for several years. Now we visit the Austin Playhouse in the daylight, and we ask all those questions –what’s backstage, how can they produce such outstanding performances in such a small theater, what is ahead for APH. We ask the Producing Artistic Director, Don Toner –backstage!

Design Center Austin: Few are aware that Austin has a unique design center—a collection of specialty showrooms open to both the public and the trade, focused on design and finishes for the built environment. Visit the showrooms and discuss the vast network of independent sources offered in this rare setting.

Clear Channel – 6 Radio Studios

KASE- FM KVET- FM/KVET- AM KFMK- FM KHFI- FM KPEZ-FM
As we tour the studios, hear about the radio industry and surrounding business that comes with it (sales and promotion)- See and learn as we go behind the scenes.

Lunch: Hyde Park Grill –south

Visit the new Mexican American Cultural Center –a resource for a meaningful understanding and appreciation of not only Mexican American but also Native American, Chicano and other Latino cultures with programs and education relating to visual art, theater, dance, literature, music, multi-media and the culinary arts.
