

Senior University Travels

NEW! -JUST ANNOUNCED!

AUSTIN BEHIND-THE-SCENES #30

Wednesday, February 24, 2010

9 am - 6 pm

Tour the Neil Cochran House

More than 150 years ago, master builder Abner Cook was commissioned to build this notable Greek Revival home in Austin. Over the years, the property has served as home to the state's first school for the blind, a lieutenant governor, and a hospital for Federal soldiers during Reconstruction

LUNCH AT SCHOLZ GARTEN

Visit the Capitol Visitor's Center -

in old General Land Office Building-the oldest state office building

Visit Texas Memorial Museum -

Home of the pterosaur (opened in 1939 - recently updated!)

Our SPECIAL TREAT:

*University of Texas School of Fine Arts Dance Department
A Very Special Performance - for US*

$62

Includes motor coach, entry fee, lunch, refreshments on board and gratuities. Hosts: Babs and George Cape

RESERVE NOW -

Email reservations to: admin@senior-u.org

Once confirmed, send checks immediately to: P.O. Box 488, 78627