

Senior University Travels

Big Bend with Marv & Sue Kauffman

Travel with the Experts

Big Bend Country's Geology & Natural History

Sunday, March 21 – Friday, March 26, 2010

Spring in the Desert

Highlights:

Texas' answer to the Rockies: Davis Mountains

Rustic, but "cool" Indian Lodge

Find the Mysterious Marfa Lights

Fort Davis-- National Historic Site – Front Range of the Rockies

Museum of Big Bend, Sul Ross State University - Alpine

Chisos Basin at 5,400 Feet Elevation – and Pure Texas

Chisos Mountain Lodge (catch the sunset and sunrise)

Ocotillo Fences, Overland Trail and Friendly Texans

Chihuahuan Desert - the largest desert in North America

Langtry – Hear the Tales of Judge Roy Bean

Sonoran Caverns – Considered Texas' Most Beautiful Caves

Learn the truth behind this unique part of Texas –

Big Bend's geology and natural history secrets!

$1285 per person double $1810 single

Deposit $300 to confirm Final due by January 20

All payments are non-refundable; however, if you must cancel and can be replaced from the waitlist, a refund will be issued. Insurance is available. Call Babs: 864-3650

All-inclusive: motor coach, 5 nights lodging with taxes, all meals and entry fees; refreshments on the journey, gratuities. Hosts, guides and instructors: Marv and Sue

NOTE: The Kauffmans will be jointly teaching Big Bend Country in the spring