

Senior University Travels
Washington, D.C.!

Thursday, April 29 – Tuesday, May 4, 2010

Travel to the heartbeat of our country!—
America's center of history, art and power!

Visit and tour monuments, museums, government centers, cemetery, gardens, cathedral, theater ....everything we can possibly do in 5 days!

Requests have been submitted to tour the White House, Capitol Building, State Department Diplomatic Rooms, National Cathedral (with Evensong), Arlington Cemetery (to tour and lay a wreath at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier), and Annapolis.

Once confirmations have come through and times settled, visits will also be arranged for the new WWII Memorial, the museums of the American Indian and Postal Service plus:

Vietnam, Korean, FDR, Iwo Jima, Lincoln, Jefferson memorials – including a night tour; the Udvar-Hazy Smithsonian, Marjorie Merriweather Post's Hillwood Estate, Ford's Theater; Library of Congress and Supreme Court. And a trip on the Metro!

You will have some free time to explore the museums of your choice!

Plus some fun dining experiences!

Much of our tour will be by motor coach and then your good walking shoes.

You cannot see Washington without a lot of walking!

We will be accompanied by a professional guide throughout!
