

Dinner & theater — austin style

Thursday, December 1, 2011

Arrive 4:10 p.m.

Return about 10:45 p.m.

Dinner: fonda san Miguel

Opened in 1975, the finest interior

and recognized as one of Mexican restaurants in the country, FSM features classic regional Mexican.

Theater: Austin playhouse

The lion in winter

By James Goldman

King Henry II has banished his wife, castle tower and taken a nubile when Eleanor is temporarily freed for Eleanor of Aquitaine, locked her in the French mistress. All hell breaks loose the holidays and all three of their sons vie to inherit the throne.

Note: This season the first productions will be in a temporary facility next to the building site of the new theatre. Everything possible will be done to make this a comfortable and convenient experience, but please join in with a spirit of adventure for this completely unique season. Each time you visit the temporary site, you'll be able to see the progress on the new theatre. For more on the facility, please see the website:

www.austinplayhouse.com

$108 per person season subscribers

$129 per person non-subscribers

Includes motor coach, dinner, tickets for non-subscribers, all gratuities, and hosts: Babs and George Cape

Reservations: email admin@senior-u.org or phone 819-7680