Kenichi

Austin's hottest restaurant in the heart of the warehouse district, is the premiere spot for "Contemporary Asian Cuisine". Kenichi is one of Austin's hippest, most energetic scenes. The proud recipient of the wine Spectator Award of Excellence for its impressive wine and sake lists, Kenichi offers Texas's largest Selection of rare sake.

Our menu: Misa Soup or Sunomono Salad, Dynamite Shrimp Tempura, Wild Boar Potstickers, Stir-fried vegetables & steamed rice, Chicken Teriyake and Seared Sea Scallops
+ Green Tea Beignets with Local Honeycomb and Vanilla Ice Cream
Enjoy the Adventure at one of Austin's BEST!

Austin Playhouse: Frost/Nixon

In 1978, David Frost published his account of his dealings with Nixon in "I Gave Them A Sword": Behind the Scenes of the Nixon Frost Interviews. There, he explained how he negotiated the deal with Nixon for his "television memoirs" for a payment of $600,000 plus 20 percent of the profits from the interview's airing. When the American networks refused to pay for the four-part program of ninety-minute shows, Frost had to assemble his own network and find sponsors. To make it work, Frost had to crack Nixon's I-didn't-do-anything-other-presidents-hadn't-done defense. It was a high-risk venture that succeeded.
